Women teachers to attend the germans has raised a storm of process. The young men claim they won't stand for it. They say that it would not make so much difference if there were more women tions men in Focahontas, but since the reverse is the case, they do not see how the school board can forbid the young men from meeting the deathers socially.
In their fight against the school board, the young men of Pocahontas have secured ald from the Graham way take official notice of it with the result that Graham teachers might the forbidgen to step lightly upon this
